The living area is situated at the top of the chalet and showcases the honeyed wooden timbers and stone walls of the original farmhouse whilst adding modern lighting, designer furniture and other contemporary touches.

Living Area

The second floor living area has comfy sofas arranged around a glass fronted fireplace.

The west-facing balcony allows breath-taking views of the mountains and reclining chairs to settle back in and enjoy a glass whilst the sun sets.

The dining area features age-old stone & rustic timbers, and leads through to a well-equipped open-plan kitchen.

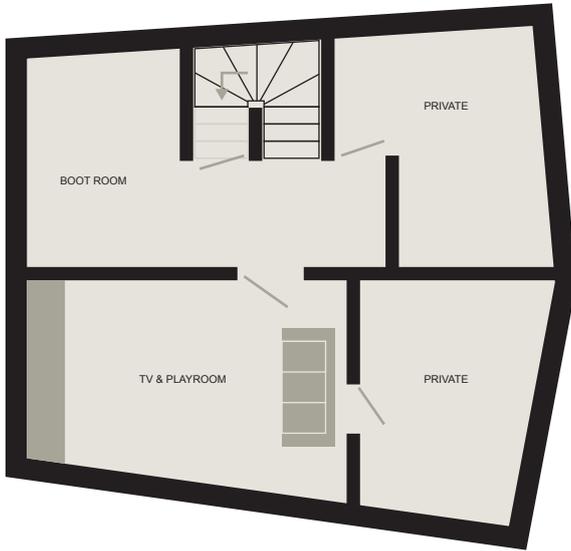

On the lower ground floor is the boot room with ski racks. There is a snug & children's playroom on this floor, fully equipped with British satellite TV, DVD player, a selection of films and books with board games.
